Liberace Foundation & Museum partners with Barnes & Noble to promote Liberace's legacy at special book fair event on Nov. 3

Support The Liberace Foundation & Museum by shopping at Barnes & Noble at 567 N. Stephanie in Henderson, on Saturday, Nov. 3 from 10:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. In an effort to raise funds for student scholarships in the performing and creative arts and the continued preservation of Liberace's priceless museum collection, the Liberace Foundation & Museum and Barnes & Noble Booksellers will host a Book fair.

Barnes & Noble will donate a percentage of sales for guests who present the special Liberace Foundation book fair voucher. Vouchers will be available upon request on Nov. 3 at Barnes & Noble, online at www.liberace.org, or for pick up in person at the Liberace Foundation administrative offices, located at 1775 E. Tropicana Ave. during business hours.

During the book fair, guests will have the opportunity to hear presentations about the Liberace legacy, the Liberace Foundation and Museum, view Liberace's glittering costumes, participate in a raffle, and experience live musical performances. Children will be introduced to Liberace through a dramatic storytelling about his life and legacy as "Mr. Showmanship" and entertainer.

Authors Michael Feder and Karan Feder and owners of Fame Farm LLC will be available from 12 Noon to 3 p.m. to sign copies from any book purchases of their just released in 2007 Liberace-inspired books, "The Joy of Liberace: Retro Recipes from America's Kitschiest Kitchen" and "Liberace – Your Personal Fashion Consultant."

For more information about the book fair, contact Rebecca Olschewski at the Liberace Foundation phone 798-5595 ext. 20 or e-mail at rebecca@liberace.org.
