LIBERACE

YOUR PERSONAL FASHION CONSULTANT

By Michael Feder and Karan Feder

Fall 2007 -- Liberace was a renowned classical pianist, an amazing showman, and an over-the-top fashion legend. His plumage was extraordinary and made him a Vegas show-biz icon. In LIBERACE: Your Personal Fashion Consultant (Abrams Image; $12.95; October; Paperback; 16 full-color illustrations), the sequin-studded star swings his closet door open to share flamboyant quips and tips on dressing for every day. The book features dazzling archival photographs from the Liberace estate (many never before published) that can be punched out to create a dozen outrageously clothed Liberace paper dolls in hilarious poses. Never underestimate a man in hot pants. A portion of all proceeds from books sold will benefit the Liberace Foundation for the Performing & Creative Arts (Liberace.org).

ABOUT THE LIBERACE FOUNDATION & MUSEUM:

Liberace transported audiences to a dazzling world of color, jovial music, glittering costumes and humor. His legend lives on in the Liberace Museum, considered to be Mr. Showmanship's greatest encore performance. Liberace opened his Museum in 1979 to share his collections with the world, to support his love of being an active patron of the arts, and most importantly to support his mission of helping talented students pursue careers in the performing and creative arts through scholarship assistance. To date, the Liberace Foundation has awarded in excess of $5 million in scholarships to almost 2,500 students at over 110 colleges and universities throughout the U.S. The Liberace Museum serves as a significant funding source for the Liberace Foundation. It features Liberace's collections of rare and antique pianos, classic cars, famous sequined and bejeweled costumes, glittering stage jewelry and rare antiques, as well as Liberace's private papers and memorabilia. The Museum is located at 1775 E. Tropicana Avenue in Las Vegas, and open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday, and noon to 4 p.m. on Sunday. Admission is $15 for adults and $10 for seniors age 65 and older, and students with valid ID. Museum and Foundation members and children ages 10 and under are free. Nevada residents receive free admission the second Sunday of each month. The Museum also presents a "A Musical Tribute to Liberace: On With The Show!" starring Wes Winters (www.weswinters.com) every Tuesday, Wednesday and Saturday at 1:00 p.m., and admission price is $17.50 per person.
